

LANITIS GROUP

The Lanitis Group, is currently under the leadership of the fourth generation of the Lanitis family.

The Lanitis Group, one of the largest business groups in Cyprus, was established towards the end of the 19th century and is currently under the leadership of the fourth generation of the Lanitis family. Based on its values – reliability, integrity, quality and social contribution – the Group has played a pioneering and innovative role through time in the industries that it operates in. While securing its financial standards, the Group at the same time participates in, and contributes actively to, the economy and the community of the country. The Group is active in a diversified set of business fields such as construction, property development, tourism and travel, hotels, transport, leisure and entertainment, restaurants, golf, marinas, energy, trading and commodities.

The vision of the Group is to make a positive contribution through time to the economy and society, based on development, innovation and quality, aiming to ensure a dynamic future perspective. This vision has been shared and followed by four generations within the Group, while continuously moving forward and growing through contemporary methods and practices. The Group is also known for its humanitarian and social contribution to society, especially in the areas of culture, education and health. In 2001, the Evagoras & Kathleen Lanitis Foundation was established as a non-profit organisation based in Limassol, which organizes and sponsors cultural and educational events.
